

Jarnette RobinsonPresident

As a leader, she has an unmatched passion to help returning citizens to become successful men, fathers, brothers, sons, and husbands who make extraordinary contributions to their families and society. She knows that the data are clear...statistics show that those who have support and “helping hands” are more likely to not reenter the correctional system. With first-hand experience from within her family, she is clearly a witness to the fruitful results and invaluable benefits of helping someone to have a fresh start and another chance! And, for these reasons and many more, she is leading All About Grace, Inc., to a level of excellence where all who seeks will have a helping hand. Jarnette has a degree in accounting and is a licensed cosmetologist and instructor. She has been a member of St. Pauls Baptist Church for over 20 years.

Rosalind Lynch ChristianTreasurer

A Richmond native, Rosalind is dedicated to making a difference in the lives of others. A graduate of Richmond Public Schools, she attended J. Sergeant Reynolds Community College and Virginia Commonwealth University. She is currently the Programs Coordinator at Capital Area Health Education Center (Capital AHEC). As a co-founder of Cornerstone United Holy Church, Rosalind currently serves as Associate Minister, Minister of Administration, and Praise & Worship Leader. Rosalind is currently Assistant Secretary of the General Youth Department; President of the Virginia District Youth Department; and Secretary of the Virginia District Music Department-- all under the United Holy Church of America. She was ordained as Elder in June 2013. Self-branded, The ElleVator (“she lifts”), Rosalind loves to encourage and nurture people to realize that they are beautiful inside and out. God has blessed her with a special anointing that flows through singing, speaking and her total personality. She is amazed at how God uses her humble but comical nature to touch lives. Rosalind sits on the board of Storehouse Ministries, Inc., and is a member of the Randolph Macon College's PA (Physician Assistant) Advisory Committee. Most recently, Rosalind received a Certificate of Achievement as a Certified Life Breakthrough Coach from the Life Breakthrough Academy.

Tarsh M. Bagby
Board Member at Large

Born and raised in Richmond, Virginia, Tarsh is a graduate of Richmond Public Schools. For almost 4 decades, she has worked in the insurance industry. As a mother with 3 sons, she prides herself on being a champion for the rights of others. Her passion for helping people pillars her desire to serve on the Board of Directors for All about Grace, Inc. She believes strongly that men who have been incarcerated deserves the help and support needed to successfully transition home and deserve a fresh start in life. She believes that All about Grace, Inc is what God has afforded to all of us and asserts that after all, we have all made mistakes in life and have been given another chance...It's not where you have been, but where you are going that must be the focus.

Simone Robinson
Secretary

Simone is a professional Clerk for the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, where she has devoted her time and energy to yield high quality performance for almost 15 years. Simone is known for her exceptional customer service and strong work ethic. Her dedication to listening to the impactful voices of others aligns perfectly with the mission. Her expertise and commitment will undoubtedly help All about Grace, Inc., to advance its mission and make an extraordinary difference in the lives of those served.

Alfred MayoBoard Member at Large

Alfred has dedicated over 35 years to law enforcement and today serves as Deputy Sheriff to the Baltimore County community. His extensive experience and steadfast dedication have made him a respected figure within the department. With a deep love of sports, Alfred's enthusiasm and team spirit are evident in everything he does. His strong work ethic and approachable personality will undoubtedly enrich the lives of those who are served by the organization. He has an unwavering commitment to making a positive impact and is led by his desire to serve people in communities.

Angela SmithBoard Member at Large

Driven by a commitment to helping all people, regardless of circumstances, to succeed, Angela is a passionate advocate. She has devoted her professional career to helping entities fulfill their missions by ensuring that programs and services are delivered with respect to the highest level of quality. Under her leadership, she has helped businesses reach and exceed their goals, realize their missions, and to be uniquely positioned for success. She has authored training resources and position papers that have helped to advance growth and advancement in human development. She has served on various national and state level task forces, committees, and advisory panels, including but not limited to, Sesame Street, NAEYC, Casey Family and Foster Care, and Eco-Healthy Child Care; and she completed the Nike Leadership Training for gold star leaders.